Editorial Comments.

Alabama Democrats had their runoff primary yesterday for governor and other officers.

Manual, of Portugal, denies that he and his wife are at outs. He says they are "most happy."

Two German army aviators were killed at Stettin, Saturday, while attempting to make a landing.

Congressman Stanley spoke at Franklin Saturday and was given an enthusiastic reception by a large crowd.

The state bankers "play" Dawson the last week in May and the state press will take what is left the second week in June.

Maybe Providence is to take a hand and lower the high cost of living. The present wheat crop is expected to break all records.

Both Villa and Zapata are closing in on Huerta and are liable to get to Mexico City before the mediators get to Niagara Falls next Monday.

At Akron, Ohio, a mad dog entered a school room and bit five small children before it escaped. One boy was terribly mangled by the rabid beast.

The widow of Explorer Scott, who lost his life on the trip to the South Pole, denies that she is soon to wed Jas. E. Barrie, the English playwright.

Wm. E. Powell, son of Rev. W. D. Powell, the State Secretary of the Baptist Missions Board, of Kentucky, has reached Louisville as a refugee from Mexico.

All Kentucky is saddened to see John J. C. Mayo lose his long and game fight for life. He is in the grip of a fatal malady, with several most serious complications.

Villa arrested Military Governor Chao, of Chihuahua, the other day and was about to have him shot, on a charge of disloyalty to him, when Carranza heard of it and stopped the execution. Chao was deposed.

Thousands of women marched up Pennsylvania avenue Saturday from the White House to the capitol and presented the resolutions asking for the woman's suffrage amendment to 531 members of Congress individually. They were received by committees and courteously allowed to carry out their program.

China has made a government pronouncement that beats Kentucky's new cigarette law. After May 30, any person under 40 years old found smoking opium at Chengtu will be shot and those more than 40 will be sentenced to penal servitude. This law indicates that China is trying to discourage opium smoking.

The Hobson resolution for a constitutional amendment forever prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors was reported to the House without recommendation, by the Committee on Judiciary. It is not expected to receive the necessary two-thirds vote. For the first time Congressmen must now vote for or against prohibition itself. The Webb law only related to prohibition enforcement.

TAMPICO ATTACKED

Battle Raging With The Constitutionalists Sure To Win.

HUERTA IS STILL KICKING.

Conferees Named For The Meeting At Niagara Falls Next Week.

Washington, D. C., May 11.—Mexican Foreign Minister Ruiz has reported to the mediators at Washington that United States torpedoboats have landed a party at Sobo Island and seized the lighthouse, and charges the armistice has been violated. Associate Justice Joseph P. Lamar, of the United States Supreme Court, and Frederick W. Lehman, of St. Louis, are to represent the United States at the Niagara Falls peace conference. The re-inforced Constitutionalist army is reported to have begun an attack on Tampico, and advises received at El Paso state that the oil wells and tanks are on fire. The Mexican peace envoys arrived at Vera Cruz. They were met by Gen. Funston, who offered them passage on the Morro Castle, which they declined.

SUNDAY'S WAR NEWS

The Navy Department issued orders early Sunday morning to Rear Admiral Mayo to remove all Americans from Tampico. The Rear Admiral had reported that the rebels were preparing to bombard the city. Preparations for dispatching reinforcements to Gen. Funston at Vera Cruz went forward steadily, work on twelve transports to carry troops, horses and supplies being pushed. A threatened complication disappeared when the German steamers returned to Vera Cruz with war stores intended for the Huerta government, declining to land them at Puerto Mexico. The mediators announced that the peace conference at Niagara Falls would convene on the date scheduled, and it was announced that the United States delegates would probably be named Monday.

CAPT. TANDY HAS RESIGNED

And Capt. A. G. Chapman Is Named as His Successor.

Frankfort, Ky., May 11.—Acting Adj. Gen. James Tandy Ellis has appointed Arthur G. Chapman, of Louisville, commissary of the Third Infantry, Hopkinsville, to succeed Capt. Charles H. Tandy, of Hopkinsville, resigned. The appointment of First Lieut. William H. Terry, battalion adjutant, First battalion, Third Infantry, Bowling Green, has been made by the military department.

Nephew of Daniels Killed.

Vera Cruz, May 11.—Refugees arriving from Tampico say a man named Burdwell has been killed by rebels, a short distance south of Tampico at Ozuama. The report has not been confirmed. In Tampico Burdwell was said to be a nephew of Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy.

The Wounded Coming.

The 45 wounded sailors en route from Vera Cruz passed Key West Saturday. All are convalescent. Three lost a leg and one an arm in the fighting.

DEADLY DUEL WITH PISTOLS

Two Negroes Pump Each Other Full of Lead at Lafayette.

BOTH OF THEM WERE KILLED

School Concert The Scene of A Bloody Tragedy Friday Night.

There was something doing at a colored school concert held at the school house in Lafayette Friday night. Along about 11:30 o'clock Edgar McNeal and Oliver Williams fell out over some trivial matter; and both drew pistols and fired five times each at close range. There was a hasty evacuation of the building, some using the windows as exits, and a panic ensued.

When the smoke cleared away McNeal was lying dead on the floor and Williams was in a dying condition. He lingered until 5 o'clock Saturday morning.

Nobody seems to know how the trouble started. Williams it is said fired the first shot, but both were soon firing at the same time.

McNeal was recently released from the city work house here after serving a long term for disorderly conduct. Both negroes are young men and were not considered bad characters at Lafayette, though McNeal's reputation here was none too good.

OPINION IS AMBIGUOUS

And When Closer Read Is a Refusal To Confirm Coal Rate.

Those who have analyzed the ruling of the Railroad Commission in the I. C. coal rate case have discovered that the opinion is a refusal to grant the rate asked for Hopkinsville, instead of a confirmation of the 60 cent reduced rate. A proviso in the order imposes conditions that the Railroad will not accept and that is of course a defeat for Hopkinsville. Here is an extract from the opinion: "In the opinion of the commission that the application of the Illinois Central be granted, provided, however, that the rates to intermediate points shall not be in excess of those rates fixed by order of the Commission in the case of the Hopkinsville Business Men's Association vs. the L. & N., which rates are as follows: "From mines twenty miles distant and under, forty cents; from thirty miles and over twenty, fifty cents; from forty and over thirty miles, sixty cents; from fifty and over forty miles, sixty-five cents; from sixty and over fifty miles, seventy cents."

Princeton being an intermediate point within 20 miles of some of the mines would have to be given a 40-cent rate for Hopkinsville to get 60 cents. Both are now paying 75 cents. All other intermediate points would get the L. & N. rate, which would in many cases be lower than Hopkinsville gets.

The opinion was given out as a victory for the city, but if this interpretation is correct, it is a complete knockout.

Muhlenburg Couple.

Mr. Goday Young, supervisor of schools for Muhlenburg county, and Miss Lola Bivens, a young teacher of the county schools, came here Thursday afternoon and were married by Rev. J. B. Eshman, at the Cumberland Presbyterian parsonage, on a license issued at Greenville. They left for a trip to Nashville before returning to Greenville.

PHYSICAL CONNECTION

Of the Three Railroads Next Move of Hopkinsville Business Men's Association.

APPEAL TO COMMISSION.

Committee to Consider the Need of Paved Streets in Hopkinsville.

The H. B. M. A. held an important meeting Friday night with President Cooper in the chair. The attendance was small.

The principal matter of business was a movement to take the matter of securing physical connection of the three railroads to the Interstate Commerce Commission. M. C. Forbes, J. M. Neblett, Geo. D. Dalton and F. K. Yost were named as a committee to employ an attorney and push the matter to a decision.

The Civic League's Clean-up campaign was heartily endorsed.

John R. Bible stated that as a member of the committee in charge, he had arranged for the Southern Commercial Congress to have moving picture films made of Christian county wheat fields in all stages of growth and harvest, for exhibition at the San Francisco exhibition. He stated that the best No. 2 wheat grown in America is raised in Christian county and the present crop is the best for many years.

Secretary Bleich brought up some correspondence with parties at Big Rock, Tenn., relative to an interurban road from Hopkinsville to Dover. Mr. Bleich was instructed to say that Hopkinsville would be ready when the enterprise assumed a definite form.

The question of permanent streets in Hopkinsville was given earnest consideration and President Cooper was authorized to name a committee representing all parts of the city to see if the people would pay for building the streets on certain streets. They can be built for about $2.50 per lineal foot to the center of the street on the wide streets and much less on narrow ones.

EARTHQUAKE IN SICILY

Dead Number 139 And The Injured Run Into The Hundreds.

One hundred and thirty-nine dead and 350 injured are known to have resulted from the Sicilian earthquakes and eruptions of Mt. Etna Friday night. Whole towns were devastated and large sections of the country laid waste. Relief work is progressing slowly and it may be weeks before the full count is completed. Sicily has suffered more than any other region from similar disasters.

WARRANTS FOR $150,000

Will Be Mailed to Confederate Pensioners May 15.

Warrants for $150,000 will be mailed at Frankfort to pensioners next Friday under the Confederate Pension Act. The warrants are now being made out by the office force of the State Treasurer. Since the Confederate Pension Act became a law 4,487 applications for pensions have been filled with Commissioner of Pensions Stone, and of this number 449 have died since filing applications.

CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

Lack of Laborers Is The Chief Difficulty In The Way of Work.

IDLERS WHO WILL NOT WORK

The Committee Will Put In All This Week In Removing Garbage.

To-day is the day set apart for the clean-up campaign of the Civic League and the only thing in the way is the lack of laborers to do the actual cleaning up. Everybody is ready and willing, but while the harvest is great the laborers are few. Many citizens are unable to get the necessary work done.

Even gardeners are no longer available and many gardens are growing up in weeds for the lack of a working class in the city. Wages have increased to such an extent that many laborers make all they want in one or two days of a week and spend the rest of the time in idleness. Many of the class who formerly worked gardens now operate lawn mowers and solicit work "by the job" only in well-shaded lawns. If the clean-up campaign can be made to rid the city of these idlers, it will be the best campaign ever conducted in Hopkinsville.

VETERANS HAS RETURNED

Richmond, Va., Chosen as Place of Meeting Next Year and Officers Elected.

Nearly all of the Confederate Veterans from this section who attended the reunion at Jacksonville, Fla., returned home last Saturday. Both in point of attendance and hospitality dispensed, the veterans state, the reunion at Jacksonville was one of the most successful ever held. Col. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, was re-elected commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, defeating Gen. Felix Robertson, of Texas.

Richmond, Va., was chosen for the 1915 reunion. The present departmental commanders, Gen. Theodore S. Garnett, Norfolk, Va., commander of the Army of Northern Virginia; Gen. George P. Harrison, Opelika, Ala., commander of the department of Tennessee, and Gen. Wm. K. Vanzandt, Fort Worth, Texas, commander of the department of Trans-Mississippi, were re-elected by acclamation.

OLD ROSEBUD

Won The 40th Derby In Louisville Saturday.

Old Rosebud, owned by H. C. Applegate & Co. and ridden by J. McCabe, won the fortieth annual Kentucky Derby, one mile and a quarter, at Churchill Downs Saturday. Hodge was second and Bronzewing third. The time was 2:03 2-5, which broke the track record. Hopkinsville was well represented and some of those who attended the great event made good guesses on the winner.

More to Answer For.

News has been received of the killing of one American and two British mine officials at Guadalupe, Mexico, by Mexican federals. Two others were wounded, one an American.

SHRINERS IN ATLANTA

Myriads of Lighted Minarets and Emblematic Designs Adorn Atlanta.

SPECIAL TRAIN STOPS HERE.

Spent An Hour In Hopkinsville "Watering The Camel" And Parading.

Atlanta, Ga., May 11.—Myriads of lighted minarets, surmounted by the emblematic star, crescent and scimitar, and thousands of flags displaying the national colors and the red, yellow and green of the Mystic Shrine last night flashed forth a welcome to the imperial council of the fraternity, which convened here today for its fortieth annual meeting. More than 75 special trains arrived Sunday night and the influx of visitors continues today.

The drill, at the place selected, was interfered with by sightseers in vehicles and had to be abandoned. The Evansville lodge finally got through the crowd to Tenth and Main and did the best they could with but little room. The Madisonville lodge also made an ineffectual attempt to drill at Eighth and Main, but gave it up and repaired to the Elks Home and later found a vacant space in which to drill. The gorgeous costumes of the Madisonville Shriners, headed by Mayor D. W. Gatlin, consisting of red coats and caps and blue trousers eclipsed anything in grandeur ever seen here before.

The stay of the visitors was cut short by a short delay of fifteen minutes in the arrival of the train, which was met by a delegation of 22 local Shriners and a large committee from the H. B. M. A. wearing badges, "Greater Hopkinsville wants you."

Ike Hart and Nick Stadelman were the only local men who joined the crowd but they made a very enthusiastic delegation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Congress

We are authorized to announce
HON. J. W. HENSON
as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress for the Second Congressional District, subject to the action of the primary to be held in August, 1914.

We are authorized to announce
HON. DAVID H. KINCHELOE, of Hopkins county, as a candidate for Congress from the Second district, subject to action of the democratic primary August, 1914.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon, of Illinois, celebrated his 78th Friday.

Congress is planning for an early adjournment, not later than July 10.

Cole Blaise has been defeated in a senatorial primary in South Carolina.

The latest news from Huerta is that he is obdurate and determined not to resign. If he will not jump he will have to be pushed.

Senator Bradley has come home to look over the senatorial situation and see if there is any "opening" for his candidacy for re-election.

The United States is not maintaining a blockade at Puerto, Mexico, and the Huerta government is receiving munitions of war from German ships at that port.

The Eddyville Herald tips two prospective candidates from Lyon county next year, N. W. Utley for circuit judge and Sike Hodges for Commonwealth's attorney.

Sylvester Washington, a negro desperado who had been terrorizing St.
James, La., for a week and had killed one man and wounded another, was killed by officers Friday, as he ran out of a burning building.

Harry Thaw, who is now in the custody of Sheriff Drew, at Concord, N. H., now faces another long wait while the Supreme Court passes on the question of his sanity. His confinement only amounts to a sort of espionage. He goes where he pleases in nominal custody of a guard.

Another big consolidation of newspapers interests has taken place in Chicago. Both the Record-Herald and the Inter-Ocean have been purchased by James Keeley, General Manager of the Tribune and the two papers will be merged and published as the Record-Herald. Mr. Keeley will sever his connection with the Tribune.

A military commission appointed by Gen. Funston at Vera Cruz met yesterday to try five snipers who, during the first and second days of fighting, were caught shooting at United States sailors while they were concealed in boats in the harbor. The commission is empowered to impose penalties including the death sentence. The rulings of the court will be subject to execution by the civil agencies under the military control.

Judgment of the McCracken Circuit Court was reversed by the Court of Appeals on appeal of John R.
Reid, who recovered 1 cent damages against the Paducah Sun for connecting him with rumors published concerning the slaying of Tate Finley, although Reid was not mentioned by name in the publication. The Court of Appeals held that malice is imputed where a publication is libelous per se and remanded the case for further proceedings.

Just Half In Bed.

Clyde, Ky.—Mrs. I. A. Decker, "I recommend Cardui, the woman's tonic, to any woman in need of a was spent in bed. At last I tried Cardui. Now I am well and happy, and can do my own work." Don't suffer other womanly miseries, when your edy for such troubles—Cardui. Get a bottle for your shelf. As a general tonic, for weak women, nothing has been found for 50 years that would take its place. Try it, it will help you.

Bathing for Elderly Persons.
Provided their general health is good, elderly persons derive great benefit from bathing. At least two baths a week in water that is neither too hot nor too cold restores elasticity and smoothness to the skin, loosens the tissues and makes the limbs rounder and plumper.

MINISTERIAL RULE IN BOSTON

Writer Had Some Hard Things to Say About Clerical Bosses of a Time Long Since Gone.

The ministers ruled Boston in the good old days. They were the bosses.
Literally. The big ministers were the colonial bosses; they steered the governor and the general court, while the little ministers were the ward or town bosses; they made up the voters' lists, "sawing" elections and "ran" the town meetings. They themselves did not hold office. Like our modern political bosses, they ruled through others.
And those of us who think that "low-down politicians" are the only men that "take orders" will please observe that in this case these clerical bosses ruled through the gentry in office and the carefully selected good people in their congregations. Indeed, it seems to have been easier to corrupt that aristocracy into a theocracy than it is nowadays to corrupt a democracy into a plutocracy.

Some of the methods of the clergy were legitimate; others were not.
Their influence as preachers upon public opinion was that of leaders; and so long as they exercised it in the interest of the people of the colony as a whole, it was right and good.
But when they abused it to beat a governor who, feeling that their punishments were too cruel, attempted to use the discretion which was properly his; when they put off conventions to times and places where they could control them against public opinion; and when they let a bribe be sent to the king of England—when they did these and other things, the clergy were "playing the game" in what we would call a "pretty practical fashion." And they were a practical lot of politicians, those godly ministers; pious, but cunning; "good," but no "mollycoddlers."—Lincoln Steffens in the Metropolitan.

HAD A SPIRIT OF KINSHIP

Chance Meeting About Decided New Yorker That All Women Really Are Sisters.

Caught downtown umbrellaless on a rainy afternoon, I waited in one of the Broadway hotels for two hours, then, deciding to risk my best bonnet in the slightly slackened shower, I started across to a Sixth avenue shop to purchase an umbrella. As I stood under the elevated getting what protection I could and waiting for a hold-up in the traffic, a young girl stepped up beside me. With her skirt slit to the knee, her hair forming "ear flops" down over her too pink cheeks, and blue, blue eyes peering through a fringe of flaxen yellow, above which was a bow three times as big as the hat it adorned, she was in every detail the latest cry of her type.

One glance and she seized me by the arm to draw me beneath her umbrella.

"Come in out of the rain, girly," she said.

Even if my mind had not been on my very extravagant hat, I should have met half way her spirit of friendliness. After thirty "girly" has a rare and soothing sound, anyway.

Chatting as to an old comrade, she sheltered me to my shop door and,
with a bright nod, passed on whence she had come—into the unknown—
New York Evening Post.

Which Leg?

In a small town in the west of Scotland the town clerk, who was a bit of a "character," had the misfortune to lose his leg in a railway accident.

As a mark of appreciation and esteem for his long service, the council unanimously agreed to replace his loss with an artificial limb, which they did as soon as he was sufficiently recovered.

A few months afterwards the town clerk, who was generally known by his Christian name, Paul, was unfortunate enough to have his other leg fractured in a trap accident.

Naturally the mishap became food for town gossip, and one old wife, in discussing the matter with a neighbor, was overheard saying:

"It's gey bad business for Paul, paul man; but it's his ain leg or the leg that belongs to the toon that's broken?"

In Fashion's Jungle.

A big game hunter, just back from six months between Killmanjaro and Victoria Nyanza, was walking on Fifth avenue, New York, with a companion.
In one block he passed a furrier's shop with mounted skins of tiger and lion in the window and immediately thereafter three women, one wearing a leopard skin coat, another a wolf skin set, and still another whose furs might have been borne by an animal of mammoth shape. The hunter's arms twitched.

"I say," he remarked, "there's nowhere a chap misses his rifle more than on Fifth avenue. And," he added vengefully, "such a hunt mightn't be amiss, you know."

Might Have Liked Them.

At a reunion of the Adams family the chicken croquettes gave out, so the maids carefully neglected the young children. After vainly trying to attract the attention of his mother, one of the little boys at the lower end of the table called out in a loud tone of voice: "Mother!"
"What is it, Albert?" she replied.
"Do you think," went on the child,
"I should have liked the croquettes if I had one?"—Lippincott's.

TALK ABOUT THE WEATHER

Declared in These Days to Be the Only Safe Topic of Conversation.

Perhaps the chief reason why the weather is a suitable topic for conventional conversation is its usefulness.
Nothing can be done with the weather except talk about it, so the talk is not liable to interruption by a call to action. Hard times are a topic of general interest, common alike to millionsaire and workman. But if you say to a perfect stranger the times are hard he may take advantage of that admission by asking for a subscription for some charity or by demanding that you vote the socialist ticket.

The weather is, in fact, almost the only safe topic left for pure conversation in this energetic and practical age, says the New York Independent.
However much you may deplore the badness of the weather, nobody is likely to hold you responsible for it or call upon you to remedy it unless you run across a crank who is raising a fund to bombard the heavens for the production of rain or the dissipation of hailstorms.

Leading off with the weather inspires confidence because it is a traditional and established opening. If a man on being introduced to a young woman is asked by her if he is married, or on meeting a stranger in a dark and deserted road is asked what time it is, his suspicions are aroused at once. In fact, any conversational opening except the conventional one is liable to raise the inquiry, "What does he mean by it?"

If, however, one begins with the weather we know that he means nothing by it, and we may continue the conversation with ease of mind. Being then both useless and useful, the

CHURCH BUILT FROM A TREE

Single Giant Redwood of California Furnished Enough Material for the Whole Structure.

In Santa Rosa, Cal., is a Baptist church building, the product of a single giant redwood tree which grew in the neighborhood of Guerneville, a few miles distant from where it now stands. Not only is the main structure built from the one tree, but the interior finishings—except the floor, which is of pine—are of the same wood, beams, pulpit and seatings, not a particle of plaster or other similar material being used in this remarkable building.

The tree when sawed yielded 78, 000 feet of lumber, and after the building was finished in every particular, enough material was left to manufacture several thousand shingles, besides a quantity of scantlings, joists and other dimension stuff. So carefully were the details planned and so skillfully was the framework put together, that the builders of this one-tree church declared it might be as enduring as the old Saxon churches of England built centuries ago out of native timber and still in use. It is gothic in style, finished with massive huttresses outside and heavy beams inside. A tower 70 feet high was built on the southwest corner, but it came down at the time of the great earth quake in 1906.

Young Sandy's Shrewdness.

There is a lad in a certain Scottish town who is noted for his shrewdness. The other day he was sent by his father to a neighboring public house with the following order:

"Please send to our house ten dozen ale."

Now, it so happens that one of the publican's faults is a propensity to poke his nose into other people's business, and so when he had read the order he could not help ejaculating: "Guld gracious, laddie, and whatever is yer fether gaun the dae w'il sae muckle ale?"

For a moment Johnnie was puzzled, knowing that his father wouldn't like him to exactly tell the truth. Then an idea occurred to him and he quietly replied:

"I'm no verra sure, but I think he's gaun the mak' a cork frame and he'll need the corks."—New York Tribune.

Worth Knowing.

Röntgen rays are produced under suitable conditions by electric discharge in vacuum tubes. They pass through wood, flesh, paper and other optically opaque substances, but are absorbed by such substances as metal, bone and glass; for which reason when a limb of an animal body is interposed it will cast upon a screen a shadow in which the dark, bony central structure can be clearly distinguished. These shadow pictures also show the presence of foreign metallic substances such as bullets, needles, etc., in the body, and are of immense service in surgery.

Wifely Praise Qualified.

The husband was listening with blushing pleasure to his wife's praises of his handiness. He looked a little deprecatingly at the other passengers, as though to say, "I didn't seek this fame!" Then, unfortunately, says the Manchester Guardian, his good wife perpetrated one of those errors sometimes classified as "things which might have been expressed differently." "Yes," she said, with an emphatic nod, "he made a greenhouse all 'iself, an' to look at it you'd think a real man 'ad made it."

TYPICAL NEWSPAPER COMMENT ON THE REDPATH CHAUTAUQUA OF 1913

The Tri-City Daily, Florence, Ala., says:

"Florence has been captured entirely by the Redpath Chautauqua and it is a safe bet that the chautauqua will not be allowed to pass this city by in the future."

In an editorial in the Albany, Ga., Herald this statement is made: "Thru this big organization with a string of 110 chautauquas scheduled we were enabled to have attractions that we could not have secured for a single assembly."

The Dyersburg, Tenn., State Gazette said

editorially: "We will all be sorry when it becomes necessary for them to fold their tents, but unlike the Arabs it will not be necessary for them to steal away."

The Clarksville, Tenn., Leaf-Chronicle

"Now that our good people know from actual experience just what are the possibilities of the Chautauqua movement they are unanimously agreed as to its great helpfulness to a community."

The Birmingham, Ala., Age-Herald says:

"The tent which holds over 2000 persons was well filled when the performance began last night and altho the weather was hot every part of the program was received with much enthusiasm. Indications are that from now on large crowds will patronize the chautauqua performances. The Redpath agency which is giving the program is well known as one of the foremost booking agencies of the world."

The Alpena, Mich., Echo: "When Mr. Rheinfrank asked those of the audience who would like a chautauqua in Alpena next year to stand, the entire audience arose. It was necessary to call an imposing vote."

The Battle Creek, Mich., Enquirer: "The Best

Ever Chautauqua grows more popular with each succeeding entertainment."

The Gary, Ind., Post: "It is doubtful if any chautauqua in any city has ever had such overwhelming success during its first year as the Redpath Chautauqua had here during its present engagement."

Heroic Girl Killed.

Fort Smith, Ark., May 10.—Frances Spankee, 16 years old, met death while trying to save Mary Oberlee, her 9-year-old companion. The girls were walking over a trestle near Clarksville when they heard the approaching train. Both ran, Frances cleared the trestle but when she looked around Mary was sitting on the track, her foot caught between the ties.

Frances ran back and as she bent to extricate the imprisoned foot the locomotive struck both girls and hurled them from the trestle. Frances was killed and Mary suffered severe injuries.

Pleasant Stop-Over For an Hour Of One Of The Excursion Trains.

The special train from Madisonville and as far north as Evansville stopped over an hour here yesterday morning at 9:33 to "water the camel" and there was something doing every minute. The party detrained and paraded from the L. & N. depot down Ninth to Clay, out Clay to Sixth, down Sixth to Main, down Main to Ninth where drills were given by the Evansville and Madisonville patrols. These drills were something out of the ordinary and attracted a great crowd. Each delegation was accompanied by its own band and both bands played some stirring airs. Many ladies accompanied the shriners. Under the guidance of Secretary Bleich, of the H. B. M. A., the ladies were taken in automobiles for a spin around town and the men were entertained by Col. Isaac Hart and other citizens of military instincts at the Elks Home.

The carnival held under the auspices of Company D came to a close Saturday night and was a big success, a handsome net sum being realized. Williamson was given the gold watch and Guy Smith the chest of silver.

The Metropolitan Company, which furnished the attractions at the carnival, went from here to Madisonville, where they are holding forth this week.

Making Bacon In Georgia.

The Southern States at one time years ago produced large numbers of hogs and cured practically all of the bacon necessary to feed the people. At the present time the same cannot be said of a single Southern State and of but few counties in any of these States. There is one county in Georgia, however, that is showing others what can be done in raising hogs. Brooks County holds the distinction of producing and selling more bacon than any other county in Georgia. Recently 22 wagon loads of cured bacon were delivered at Quitman in one day. This amounted to 45,000 pounds.

Last year Brooks County raised the meat necessary for home consumption, shipped out several carloads of hogs, and in addition sold 150,000 pounds of bacon at an average price of 14 cents a pound. This year it is estimated that Brooks County will sell 250,000 pounds of bacon in addition to what is needed for home consumption and the large numbers of hogs shipped to the market. About 1,000 of fat cattle will also be marketed from the county. The raising of live stock has not been accomplished at a sacrifice of other crops, but has been produced in addition to the regular crops, with the result that those who have taken up this line of work are becoming the leading and the most prosperous farmers in the county. The cash receipts for the live stock and bacon sold from the county is near $100,000.

What is being done in Brooks county it is believed could be done in every county in the South. This would put the farmer on a better financial footing, because he would not be dependent upon cotton as his sole cash crop, which can be marketed in early spring when farmers are so often in need of ready money.

The boys of Brooks County have manifested great interest in the organization of pig clubs and an exceedingly creditable exhibit will probably be made by the boys at the county fair in the fall.

Another Relapse.

The condition of John C. C. Mayo, Democratic national committeeman from Kentucky, suddenly became critical Friday and his physicians despair of his recovery.

BETHEL'S NEW PRESIDENT

Prof. W. S. Peterson, Now President of Piedmont College at Maycross, Ga.

COMES HIGHLY COMMENDED.

Contract Closed With Him Yesterday By the Board of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees of Bethel Female College yesterday closed a contract with Prof. W. S. Peterson, of Waycross, Ga., as head of the college, beginning with the fall session. Prof. Peterson arrived in the city Sunday night and the details were arranged yesterday. Rev. C. M. Thompson, President of the Board, had previously been to Waycross to see Prof. Peterson and on his invitation the latter came on here to look over the situation. The new president will take the college on a lease and operate it as the school has always been conducted heretofore, or until the first of last December. He is at the head of Piedmont College, a co-educational institution at Waycross, Ga., and nothing but good reports of him as an educator have come to the Board. He is in his early forties, is a man of splendid appearance, vigorous in mind and body and is said to be a canvasser with few equals in the South. He has a large family of small children, but his family will live elsewhere in the city. He stands high as an educator and is prominent as a church man. He will leave this morning for Nashville to attend the Southern Baptist Convention. Prof. Peterson was most favorably impressed with the city and with the school. He says he is confident of his ability to fill the present dormitory to its full capacity and make the proposed new dormitory an absolute necessity.

The school is closing a successful session begun under great disadvantages but under the careful management of the Board of Trustees who came to its rescue five months ago, the school has finished its year's work and is now on a profitable basis.

SCARCITY OF CATTLE

And Second Stock Sale Will Not Be Held.

Owing to the scarcity of beef cattle the second annual Church Hill Grange stock sale will not be held this year. At the first sale held some weeks ago nearly all the fat cattle in that section for sale were disposed of the sale being one of the largest even held at that place.

New Were Taken.

Counsel for Leo Frank, charged with the murder of May Phagan, will ask for annulment of the verdict because the convicted man was not in the courtroom when it was rendered.

Cereal Man Suicides.

Charles W. Post, millionaire manufacturer of health foods at Battle Creek, Mich., committed suicide at Santa Barbara, Cal., his winter home, by shooting himself through the head with a rifle.

Fatal Fire.

Two are dead and one is dying, while several are unaccounted for in a fire which destroyed a Birmingham business building with a property loss of $150,000.

Hint From Hubby.

Mrs. Blowitt (with newspaper) — "John, what does 'wanderlust' mean?" Her husband — "It's an ailment my dollars are afflicted with."

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

PROFITS IN POULTRY

EGGS DURING WINTER THE MOST DESIRABLE OBJECT.

Next in Order is Production of Broilers, Roasters, Capons and Fowls—Success Depends Upon Ability to Advertise.

(By H. R. LEWIS, New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station.)

No branch of our present agricultural development offers greater latitude in diversity of effort than poultry husbandry. It is made up of so many different branches and has so many different sources of income that the beginner may select the line which will best fit his particular conditions. Before selecting or developing any branch of work a careful study of market conditions and features of location and transportation must be made. There is a constant demand for strictly fresh table eggs and for high class market poultry. The problem, then, is to choose a line of production and by improved methods produce high quality, and no anxiety need be felt over distribution.

The most profitable and easily managed branch of poultry production is market eggs, the aim being to so hatch, rear and manage birds that a maximum of eggs are produced during winter, when prices are high. The requisites are strong, vigorous pullets, hatched during April and reared on free range and given in winter plenty of good food and a congenial environment. The latter necessitates plenty of room, an abundance of sunlight and fresh air, together with entire freedom from moisture. Eggs commanding highest prices are infertile—that is, males should be kept from the pens except during breeding season.

Next in order of possibilities comes the production of market poultry, such as broilers, roasters, capons and fowls.
Broilers may be produced as a sideline or as specialized business, preferably the former. The surplus males which occur in the hatching and rearing of pullets may be marketed young as broilers or kept until fall and sold

as roasting chickens. With the lighter breeds the former method usually brings the best returns, while in the case of the American and Asiatic breeds it will often be much more profitable to hold them for roasting.
The advantages of capon production are larger and heavier birds at killing time, a sweeter and finer flavored meat and a much higher selling value, together with a lower cost of production.

The day old chick business offers exceptional opportunities to the man with a small piece of land, and custom hatching is one of the modern developments of the past decade.

Possibilities in raising of breeding stock and in production of hatching eggs are limitless. Success depends upon quality and ability to advertise.

STEAM OF BENEFIT TO SOIL

English Gardeners Make Use of Unique Scheme to Destroy Insects—Also Increases Fertility.

For some time certain growers of tomatoes, cucumbers and similar vegetables for the London market have been injecting steam into the soil with a view to destroying certain insects and slugs, says Popular Electricity.
It is reported that the plan works very well for that purpose, but the operation brought to light an unexpected fact; namely, that the soil thus treated increased greatly in fertility, so greatly, in fact, that the ordinary amount of manure cannot be used afterward.

This effect has been explained as being due to the sterilization produced by the steam, which kills the phagocytes or protozoa which in ordinary circumstances keep down the number of bacteria in the soil whose operations are beneficial in turning organic nitrogen into a form suitable for plant food.

Give the Boy a Vacation.

If the boy shows a bit of discontent over the dullness of farm life, give him a decent sized check after harvest—and let him have his head in town for a week. It will not ruin him if he is the right sort but will open his eyes to the sweetness and beauty of his own home. If he is not out for farm life better let him go to the city. Better a good mechanic or salesman than a poor farmer.

Cause of Clover Failures.
A large portion of clover failures can be attributed to a lack of knowledge and consequent inattention to details. It is to the apparently little things that the most successful clover growers attribute their success.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT

MAKING GOOD GRAVEL ROADS

Enough Crude Oil is Applied to Make Bed Impervious to Moisture—Roll Down to Suit.

It looks like the bulk of money is larger than the faculty for building.
What we want are good roads not for coasting purposes, but for the good of the traveling public. We have had some experience in gravel roads and the best ones are made in this way, says a writer in the Iowa Homestead. We locate the center of a well-formed road bed, then four feet each way from center we open out a gravel bed eight feet wide and twelve or fifteen inches deep, depending on the kind of soil. The road bed is filled with coarse gravel mixed well with clay, or earth, and crude oil

Excellent Type of Gravel Road.

enough to make it a bed impervious to moisture. This bed is well packed for all heavy freight. The surface bed upon this should be of finer gravel about eight or ten inches deep and from the center each way should be from eight to ten feet making a top bed from sixteen to twenty feet wide with the edges well wrapped up with earth. Then the whole is rolled down to suit the form of a good road bed. The oil bed being underneath the seasons will evaporate the oil and harden the finer gravel sides of the road so as to make a fine driveway for coasting and light traffic.

Flint or limestone is the best.
Money is being thrown away by the use of sandstone as a road bed because of the fact that when it is rolled down and crushed into form it is only a short time until the frost has it in such shape that it proves worthless. Never hammer or crush the sand rock. The better form can be made of sandstone by getting the rocks in good building material form to be used only on soft, wet land, laying them in mechanically to make the eight-foot road bed and covering with the oil, clay and shell. Always put the oil bed underneath and in that way save all the fine particles to harden the road bed.

DIFFERENT TYPES OF ROADS

Much Work Done by Department of Agriculture During the Fiscal Year of 1912-1913.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Over four hundred and eighty thousand square yards of different types of roads for experimental and object lesson purposes were constructed during the fiscal year 1912-1913 under the supervision of the office of public roads. United States department of agriculture, according to bulletin 53 of the department, making a total of over four million square yards of road constructed under the supervision of this office since 1905.

The types of roads built were brick, concrete, oil-cement concrete, bituminous concrete, bituminous-surfaced concrete, bituminous macadam, surface treatment, macadam, asphalt-slag, oil-asphalt-gravel, oil-gravel, oil-corrallline, gravel-macadam, gravel, slag, sand-clay, sand-gumbo, burnt-clay, shell and earth. The object lesson and experimental work during the past year was done at a cost to the local communities of $139,841.69. This does not include the salaries and expenses of the department engineers.

The road work during the year was done in Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi, Nebraska, North Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Wisconsin and the District of Columbia.

What Bad Roads Cost.

To carry a ton one mile by sea costs one-tenth of a cent; by railroad, one cent. To haul a ton over good roads costs seven cents a mile; over ordinary country roads, 25 cents a mile.
Mud tax and hill-climbing tolls, therefore, amount to 18 cents a mile.

Cost of Poor Roads.

Poor highways lessen the profit of labor, increase the cost of living, burden the enterprise of the people, dull the morality of our citizenship and hold down the educational advancement of the country.

MEN IN MIND IN HOPKINSVILLE

People of Prominence In The Pearl City of The Penny-royal.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH NO. 7.

One of The Newest and Youngest of The City's Business Men.

One of the youngest business men in the city is Jas. F. Barnett, whose picture is here shown. He was born in Marshall county, Tenn., in Sept. 1889 and his business career begun in Franklin, Tenn., when he was 17 years of age. He learned the tailoring business from the bench up and in July 1913 moved to Nashville and became identified with the English Woolen Mills. This house recognized the hustling qualities of their new man and sent him to Hopkinsville to open a branch house. This was done

JAS. F. BARNETT.

Sept. 1, 1913 and Mr. Barnett has since been in charge of the business on Ninth street, in the Phoenix building. The company makes a specialty of suits to order and also handles some lines of men's goods. Mr. Barnett is a young man of a most agreeable personality and is attentive to his business affairs at all times. He has caught the spirit of enterprise that pervades Hopkinsville and is making himself felt in the commercial life of the city.

Brakeman Killed.

Charlie H. Wayne, of Hazel, was run over by a freight train, both legs being severed from his body. Mr. Wayne was a brakeman on the N., C. & St. L. and had caught his foot in a frog and was unable to release it when he was run down. He died two hours after the accident.

HAVE RECORD WHEAT CROP

Will Be Ninety-Eight Per Cent of Possible Yield on the Acreage.

AREA LARGEST IN HISTORY.

The Department of Agriculture Prophesies Total of 630,000,000 Bushels.

Washington, May 11.—Kentucky's winter wheat yield will be ninety-eight per cent of the possible crop, on an acreage 745,000 acres, it is estimated here by the Department of Agriculture, in a bulletin just prepared.

The bulletin estimates that the production of wheat in Kentucky will be 10,200,000 bushels.

That this year's will be the greatest crop of winter wheat ever grown in the United States, one-fifth again as large as the record crop grown last year and more than half as large again as that harvested in 1912, is the prediction in the bulletin.

In all 630,000,000 bushels will be produced if the highly favorable weather conditions existing since the crop was planted last fall continue until harvest time. The acreage abandoned through unfavorable conditions of winter weather amounted to only three and one-tenth per cent of the area planted—an unusually low area. This makes the area to be harvested the record one of 35,387,000 acres.

Indications in Kansas are that that State will have a crop of 132,000,000 bushels, and in Oklahoma the indications are for 35,000,000 bushels.

SOCIETY OF EQUITY.

Kirkmansville, Ky., May 11.—I have been asked by a great many friends and interested persons as to the Society of Equity. This organization is larger and better than ever before, while they do not go out and represent the interest of the unorganized, as the original society did. Conditions were such that a new society was formed and for farmers only. Headquarters wrote asking me to take up the work but I find the farmers are not ready for it yet in this section. Prices on wheat and other crops must be high enough for them at present. The members of this society get the best of advice as to when to sell and where our products are most needed. Our plans meet with the confidence and approval of all buyers. For instance, we know how much wheat the market is going to need and what part to keep at home to feed to stock, so as not to glut the market.

Respectfully,
F. B. McCOWN.

See our great combination offer in this issue. This offer expires May 23.
